

Data Recommender

AI feature description	This feature within the Collibra AI Governance application will generate suggested data assets already enriched with business context, privacy tags, and usage policies if available, enabling stewards to proactively link data assets to AI use cases, ensuring traceability and compliance.
Feature optional?	Yes
Model	Model Type: Google Vertex AI Gen AI?: Yes Owner: Google LLC
Intended use	Linking relevant data assets to the AI Use Case asset within the AI Governance application.
Model training/ retraining data	Collibra relies on the training data leveraged by Google Vertex AI as shipped. For more information, please see the Google Vertex AI Product Documentation .
Model input	Data assets within the customer's instance of the Collibra platform.
Model output	The output of the model will be suggested data assets to connect to an AI use case.
Is input data used to train the model for general product improvement purposes?	No
Data storage and retention	All Collibra storage locations are referenced here . Retention is concurrent with customer environment retention.
Human in the loop?	Yes. Usage of suggested data is within the user's discretion.
Is personal data processed?	Personal data is not intended to be included in the model input data, but if it is, its processing is subject to the customer's data privacy terms and conditions with Collibra under its Master Cloud Agreement. You can find our standard, customer facing privacy terms here .
Other considerations	None